For the purposes of this document, we are a "data controller". This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use any personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this document. This notice explains what personal data LFE holds about you, how we share it, how long we keep it and what your legal rights are in relation to it. Please note that we provide a separate privacy notice to explain how personal data is held, shared and kept in relation to the Erasmus+ programmes.

2. Data protection principles

We will comply with UK data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
6. Kept securely.

3. The kind of information we hold about you

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

The categories of personal information that we may collect, store, and use about you include (but are not limited to):

- Personal contact details such as name, title, addresses, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses.
- Date of birth.
- Employment details including name of employer and job title.

There are "special categories" of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection. If you are college/training provider staff, we may also collect, store and use information about criminal convictions and offences through checks we make via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) if the law requires this.

4. How is your personal information collected?

We typically collect personal information about football club staff through the information provided to us from football clubs. We collect information about college/training provider staff from your employer. We collect information about delivery partner staff from the relevant delivery partner.

We may collect other additional personal information in the course of our relationship with you.

5. How will we use information about you

We will use your personal information as follows:

- to facilitate the delivery of our programmes;

Our lawful basis for these activities is the pursuit of our legitimate interests of providing learners with educational services.

- payment of clubs, college/training providers and delivery partners;

Our lawful basis for these activities is necessity for us to comply with any contract we may have and the pursuit of our legitimate interests of providing learners with educational services.

- to assess your suitability for working with us and participants on our programmes.

Our lawful basis for this is necessity for us to comply with our legal obligations.

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information.

We may also use your personal information, typically in an emergency, where this is necessary to protect your vital interests, or someone else's vital interests. In a small number of cases where other lawful bases do not apply, we will seek your consent to other uses of your personal data.

6. If you fail to provide personal information

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to pursue our legitimate interests (such as providing access to our programmes), or we may be prevented from complying with our contractual obligations (such as payment for services provided).

7. Change of purpose

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

8. Information about criminal convictions

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations and provided we do so in line with our data protection policy.

Where appropriate, we will collect information about criminal convictions via the DBS prior to you working on a programme with us or we may be notified of such information directly by you in the course of you working with us.

We will use information about criminal convictions and offences to determine whether you are able to work with participants on our programmes.

We have in place an appropriate policy and safeguards which we are required by law to maintain when processing such data.

9. Automated decision-making

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision-making in the following circumstances:

1. Where we have notified you of the decision and given you 21 days to request a reconsideration.
2. Where it is necessary to perform the contract with you and appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.
3. In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent and where appropriate measures are in place to safeguard your rights.

If we make an automated decision on the basis of any particularly sensitive personal information, we must have either your explicit written consent or it must be justified in the public interest, and we must also put in place appropriate measures to safeguard your rights.

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

We do not envisage that any decisions will be taken about you using automated means, however we will notify you in writing if this position changes.

How long will you use my information for?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for. Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal information are available in our retention policy which is available on request.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

Once we no longer require access to your personal information we will retain and securely destroy it in accordance with our data retention policy and applicable laws and regulations.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.
